AMERICA'S MUSIC CITIES HOLIDAY
November 30th- December 7th

$4199 Double $5099 Single
Step back in time on a cultural getaway that opens in the "Jazz Capital of the World," New Orleans! We'll explore the many sides of New Orleans, Louisiana before heading to Oxford, Mississippi and then Memphis, Tennessee: the birthplace of the Blues, Rock and Roll and Soul. No tour of Memphis is complete without a tour of Graceland and Elvis' fourteen-acre estate. Our tour ends in Nashville, where we'll spend three nights. We'll be staying at the spectacular Gaylord Opryland Resort. This impressive property is a year-round wonderland, but during the holidays it truly sparkles even brighter. On our last night together, we'll enjoy a lovely dinner and holiday show at the resort.

DECEMBER
NEW YORK CITY HOLIDAY
December 5th-9th

$4249 Double $5399 Single
Long before the first snowflake, New York transforms herself into a magical holiday wonderland filled with lights and decorations. The perfect time to see the city!
We'll fly to New York City, meet our tour director and get nestled into our hotel. A welcome dinner follows. Day two is tour day with a complete tour of the city and a stop at Rockefeller Center. That evening, it's a Broadway show and the Holiday Lights Tour featuring Rockefeller Plaza and our country's most famous Christmas tree. Day three takes us to the Statue of Liberty, One World Trade Center and the 9/11 Memorial. Day four is yours to explore this fascinating city on your own, or our tour guide can make suggestions. That night is the farewell dinner and we'll kick up our heels at the Rockettes Holiday Show at Radio City Music Hall.

CHRISTMAS SEASON IN VICTORIA
& VANCOUVER
December 6th-13th

$4499 Double $5899 Single
We'll arrive in Vancouver, the crown jewel of Western Canada. Here we'll begin our holiday adventure. After a tour of the city, we'll ride the Grouse Mountain Skyride and shop at the Shipyard Christmas Markets. The European-style artisan booths are filled with decorations, holiday gifts and unique handicrafts. After we've filled our shopping bags with unique treasures, we're off to Vancouver Island and Victoria. We'll be staying at the famous Fairmont Empress Hotel for a three-night stay. The Fairmont Empress is famed as Canada's "Castle on the Coast," and is listed as one of the 21 most iconic hotels in the world. We'll enjoy a complete tour of Victoria, the Butchart Gardens, the Royal British Columbia Museum and top off the day with high tea at our hotel. Victoria has plenty of shopping as well at their Christmas Market and Fair. I think we'll need a Christmas sweater or two for this festive trip! We'll have plenty of free time on our last day to enjoy Victoria.

This eleven-day trip begins in Stockholm, Sweden after our overnight flight. After

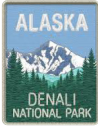

TIDBITS AND TRIVIA

- * Did you know that when a female squirrel finds a baby squirrel, she gives it food and makes sure that it isn't an orphan. After three days of research and making sure that baby squirrel doesn't have a family, she takes the squirrel, feeds baby squirrel, and familiarizes baby squirrel with her own family. The female squirrel is unique in welcoming her husband when he returns with food, kisses and caresses him to alleviate the fatigue of bringing food to her and their young. The male squirrel expresses his love for his female by giving her the most beautiful roses and largest nuts. Half the nuts and seeds they store turn into new shrubs and trees.
- * Sharks are only able to move forward, and they can die if they swim backwards.
- * A single ant can carry 50 times its own body weight.
- * Otters "hold hands" while sleeping, so they don't float away from each other.
- * The Inland Taipan (also known as, the Western Taipan) is the most venomous snake in the world. A single bite contains enough venom to kill at least 100 fully grown men and can kill within 30 minutes.
- * Koalas can sleep for up to 22 hours a day.
- * Cows poo up to 15 times a day. This can be up to as much as 115lbs a day. Approximately 21 tons a year.
- * The longest living verified animal is a Madagascar radiated tortoise. He died at an age of 188 years in May of 1965. However, Adwaita, an Aldabra giant tortoise, died at an estimated age of 255 in March of 2006. He lived at the Alipore Zoo in Kolkata, India. If verified, he would have been the oldest terrestrial animal in the world.
- * Baby elephants suck their trunks for comfort.
- * A flea can jump distances 200 times their body length.
- * There is an average of 50,000 spiders per acre in green areas.
- * An ostrich's legs are so powerful that their kicks can kill a lion.
- * More than half the pigs in the world are kept by farmers in China.
- * Polar bears have jet black skin under their white fur.
- * Great white sharks can detect a drop of blood in 25 gallons of water and can even sense tiny amounts of blood from 3 miles away.
- * Only 5% of cheetah cubs survive to adulthood.
- * A tiger's rear legs are so powerful, that they have been known to remain standing even after they've died.
- * Female duck-billed platypus do not have nipples. They concentrate milk in their belly and feed their young by sweating it out.
- * Rabbits don't have pads on their paws. Only fur.
- * Vampire bats share blood with their friends. They need to eat at least every 48 hours to survive. Bats share blood after a good meal with another bat that's fed them in the past.
- * Elephants mourn their dead. They will return to the place where their family members died and stand in silence over their bones, sometimes bowing their heads.
- * Gorillas have been seen dismantling traps set by poachers.
- * Orangutans are the heaviest tree-dwelling animals. There are three species of orangutans and adult males of all three typically weigh around 165lbs, while females are around 82lbs. They are around 5 feet tall and have a huge arm span of about 6 feet.

sightseeing in Stockholm, we're off to Norway and Denmark.
